“Experienced, dedicated and compassionate. That sums up the Brach Eichler team of LGBTQ+ friendly lawyers. They have been providing excellent comprehensive legal services to businesses, families and individuals throughout the state.”

Brach Eichler’s size and the strength of its diverse capabilities offer clients an unmatched perspective as well as a cost-conscious approach. The firm’s collaborative culture is well suited to providing seamless, integrated services that take multiple factors into consideration, leading to sensible and effective solutions. This sets our firm apart from others that merely focus on marital dissolution.

Each family law matter is unique. We have experience working with a wide variety of families and individuals with differing priorities, through difficult challenges. We consistently bring to each matter every resource we possess as a firm, for the benefit of each and every client. Our intent is to help our clients successfully enter marriage or conclude their divorce with a fair and equitable settlement that allows them to move forward in a positive way with their lives.

BRACH EICHLER’S LGBTQ+ PERSONAL INJURY PRACTICE

In the unfortunate event you are injured in an accident or hurt at work, you may be entitled to various benefits depending on the circumstances surrounding the accident, the extent of your injuries and who caused the accident. Our LGBTQ+ friendly personal injury attorneys can help you get those benefits. We handle personal injury cases including automobile accidents, negligence, slip and falls, and wrongful death. There can be a single party at fault or multiple at fault parties. Some of the numerous benefits you can potentially be eligible for are repair costs, medical bills (current & future), lost wages (current & future), death benefits, funeral benefits, loss of companionship benefits, loss of parental guidance benefits.

To ensure you receive all benefits and compensation you are entitled to it makes sense to consult with our skilled LGBTQ+ personal injury lawyers very soon after the accident. Our team will work on your behalf and make sure that your legal rights are protected throughout this emotionally and psychologically trying time. They will also strive to get you the full, fair and just compensation for your loss.
